

Accessing Continuing Education Units in CINAHL

There are 1,600 CEU's available through the Health Sciences Library & Informatics Center subscription to CINAHL. You will need to register in order to take the CEU's but registration is free.

- 1) Perform a search on a topic you need CEU's for. In this example, we type 'myocardial infarction' into the search box.
- 2) Under the search boxes in the green Search Options section, select the box next to CE module.

Once you click the link, you will be forwarded to a website to sign into your CE modules:

<http://ceu.cinahl.com/index.php?act=login>

You can also use this link to go directly to the CE Module login page. If you have not registered, you will need to do so by using the pre-registration link.

Once you are registered and logged in, you will then have to choose the CE Module from the top tab labeled "Available Modules." After you choose your module, you can then click the "how to use" tab to guide you through your module.

In addition, here is a link to a step by step help sheet with images to guide you through the process:
